LCCB/14-15/06 Consideration of Appeal for adjournment

The barrister for the respondents asked the Committee for a one month adjournment. Members were told that he had only been instructed by his clients the previous day and had little time to prepare for the hearing and sought time to further prepare evidence for the hearing, Members were told that the interim suspension currently in place at the premises would remain in place during the adjournment. The Police Barrister agreed that the adjournment could go ahead. The Committee agreed to the adjournment.

Resolved:

- i) That the meeting be adjourned until 6.00pm on Wednesday 16 June;
- ii) That the interim suspensions put in place by the Committee at its expedited meeting on the 28 May 2014 continue.

The meeting was declared adjourned by the Chairman at 6.40pm, it having commenced at 6.00pm.
